ABOUT US

At Gofobo, we can help you find screenings for upcoming films and see them before they open to the general public! With promotional screenings and sweepstakes across the country, we make it easy for movie fans to see the latest independent and studio films. The recipe is simple: you, plus a gofobo screening pass, equals fun!

If you have a redemption code for an advance screening of an upcoming film, you can redeem it here. Simply choose "redeem" in the navigation at the top of the page. If you would like the opportunity to attend advance screenings in the future, sign up today to receive emails and newsletters. The movies are waiting!
